

Why you need VRMS Hosting Services?

VRMS Hosting Services have been built with the systems and environments needed to provide scalable, reliable, and secure infrastructure, for your application. Our focus is on solutions that will allow you to implement quickly, as your business grows and technology evolves. Leveraging our hosting services will allow you to focus on your core business, while we continue to ensure the quality of delivery and operations.

Benefits

- Eliminate the cost of building infrastructure
- Focus on growing your business
- Provide a strong user experience
- All system monitoring and upgrades are completed by VRMS
- Single point of contact for all application and infrastructure matters

Administrative Services

- Daily loading of transaction data
- Updates of customer and item data
- Maintain product group and list data
- Monthly maintenance of purchase history data
- Attribute updates
- Uploading segment lists quarterly
- Product pairing data updated quarterly

Features

- SOX compliant
- 24x7 proactive monitoring of systems health and failover capability
- Off-site backup storage
- Full application, data and infrastructure administrated by VRMS

Your Go-To Marketing Partner

Through collaborative relationships, enabling retailers with a comprehensive set of tools and resources for optimizing marketing spend, driving decision making, and delivering value to consumers how, when, and where they want

For more information please visit vrms.com or contact your account executive

Delivering a world of value by reaching consumers how, when, and where they want it.